

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Robert E. Weaver's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Weaver has devoted over 34 years of his life to the service of this state and country in both the United States Army and as a Pilot in the South Dakota National Guard, including service in Germany, Panama, Kosovo, and many stateside aviation related support operations; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Weaver continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Chief Warrant Officer Four Robert E. Weaver for over 34 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 31, 2011 as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
